PROVISIONS GUIDE

PROVISIONS GUIDE

INTRO

Established in 1963 our family run business has gone from strength to strength to become Scotland's leading provisioner to chefs and kitchens.

Our on site craft butchery allows us to supply quality fresh meat and game, rich in Scottish provenance, to our clients complemented by our extensive portfolio of grocery, chilled, frozen and non-food products.

The last five years has seen the most significant developments in our range and we are excited to celebrate that in this Provisions Guide. Its our first publication for a number of years, for which we have been busily curating a range that we hope will allow chefs to create outstanding dishes. The dishes featured in the guide have all been created using J. Browns Craft Butchers cuts, supported by ingredients in our provisions range.

We are passionate about great food, strong Scottish provenance and good service, an ethic that started with my father over 60 years ago. We hope you enjoy the guide and look forward to working with you over the coming year.

CRAFT BUTCHERS

Based in Edinburgh in our purpose-built butchery facility, our craft butchers pride themselves on their extensive knowledge and attention to detail. We specialise in Scotch beef with full traceability. Not only do we recognise the importance of provenance and local heritage, selection and maturation of our meat is a priority. We mature to your required specification in our dry age room.

OUR BRANDS

At J.Brown's we understand that provenance and specification is everything. We want to be really clear about the origin, quality and maturation of each cut in our range.

The J. Browns range is made up of three brands Jack's Farm, Pentland Prime and Black Reserve. Jack's Farm offers great everyday quality, Pentland Prime is our premium red meat brand and recognises the location of our craft butchery at the foot of the Pentland Hills. Black Reserve is the newest addition and includes native breeds and specialist cuts.

DRY AGED

We dry age all of our beef in our humidity controlled dedicated dry age chamber. Depending on specification majority of cuts are aged for a minimum of 28 days up to a maximum of 45 days. We carry out regular testing to ensure that airflow and the microbiological environment remains optimised to encourage growth of beneficial moulds, the most favourable of which is Thamnidium. This produces enzymes which break down the muscle, fat and sinew, resulting in the renowned tenderness of dry aged beef. Our chamber includes a Himalayan salt wall which further restricts unwanted bacteria, whilst leaving the good mould uninhabited. Once dry aged we trim and cut to your requirements. Check out the Pentland Prime & Black Reserve range for the very best of dry aged.

SPATCHCOCK CHICKEN

A de-boned, flattened bird that roasts more evenly, and gaurantees juicy meat beneath crisp, burnished skin. This dish looks great when serving and the method of prep avoids the meat drying as it cooks.

Provisions: Marinade and griddle for perfect summer vibes. You will find all the following in our range:
White Cooking Wine (58349) | Chipotle Chilli Paste (88208) | Extra Virgin Olive Oil (48278) | Lime Juice (91314) |
Capers (66513) | Piri Piri Hot Sauce (12166) | Dried Rosemary (59507) | Dried Parsley (35759) |

Tasting notes: Expect a quicker cook and a much crispier skin with this method of prep.

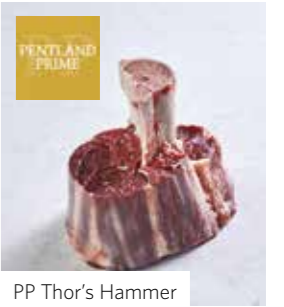

THOR'S HAMMER

The Thor's Hammer (Volcano Cut Shank, Beef Shank, Osso Buco) comes from the hind shank of beef. While this is one of the toughest cuts on the animal, it's full of flavor due to its high collagen content. Best cooked low and slow until it starts to fall from the bone.

Provisions: Thor's Hammer is best slow cooked in plenty of stock or liquid. You will find all the following in our range: Rich Sauces Beef Bouillon (56544) | Bones for Stock (62510) | Cooking Cider (34431) | Red Cooking Wine (50369) | Dried Bay Leaves (53320) | Tarragon (21638) |

Tasting notes: Thor's Hammer is ready as soon as it is fork tender. Bone and cartilage are rich sources of minerals. As the beef shanks cook, the minerals seep out and give the cut a deep and rich almost gamey flavour.

PORK LEG ESCALOPE

Our Pork Leg Escalop is cut from thinly sliced Scottish QMS Pork. This tender sliced leg is great for escalopes and is prepared ready for making your own house schnitzel. Egg and coat with a seasoned panko crumb. Flavours of lemon, thyme and fennel seeds work well.

BEEF BRISKET

The fat in brisket makes for a flavoursome meaty eat. The brisket is a pectoral muscle on the front of the cow which gets a lot of use when the cattle moves around, so there is a lot of intra-muscular fat and collagen. Therefore best cooked low and slow or ideally hot smoked. We trim our brisket generously to remove a good proportion of the fat cap to allow the fat to render out, if smoking this ensures the flavour penetrates.

PP Rolled Brisket

PP Flat Brisket

Provisions: Brisket is best seasoned the day before, ideally with a dry rub. You will find all the following in our range: Smoked Paprika (94715) | Garlic Powder (82900) | Cracked Black Pepper (72722) | Maldon Sea Salt Flakes (93468) | Cayenne Pepper (57502) | Cumin (23038) | Onion Powder (54343) | English Mustard (65565) | Brown Sugar (39265)

Tasting notes: Perfectly rendered brisket should fall apart and melt-in-the mouth. We are able to prepare brisket to your requirements and can supply it either flat or rolled. All our brisket is Scotch and cut from cattle under 30 months.

ARGENTINIAN STYLE SHORT RIBS

As opposed to traditional short ribs, these are cut across the bone for extra flavour which assists in the rendering process. For the perfect eat braise after browning.

Provisions: Traditional Argentinian flavours really compliment this cut, you will find all the following in our range: Parsley (35759) | Dried Oregano (55397) | Chipotle Chillies (63644) | Chopped Garlic (65076) | Red Wine Vinegar (40604) | Extra Virgin Olive Oil (48278) |

Tasting notes: Cut across the bone for maximum flavour.

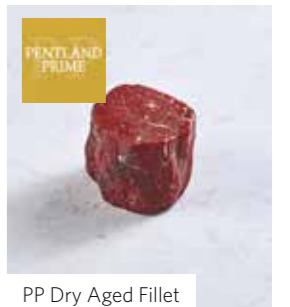

FILLET MIGNON

Our fillet mignon practically melts in the mouth. The short loin is tucked under the cow's ribs and next to the cow's backbone, the musculature bears little weight and contains minimal connective tissue, keeping the meat beautifully soft and tender. Our Scotch fillet is dry aged for a minimum of 14 days and barrel cut.

Provisions: A luxurious cut that speaks for itself, you will find all the following in our range that compliments: Woodland Mushroom Mix (82403) | Cooking Brandy 20% (85626) | Scottish Double Cream (48186) | Salted Butter (66502) | Dried Mixed Mushrooms (68322) |

PP Dry Aged Fillet

Tasting notes: Dry aged for a minimum of 14 days and cut from the rib and loin, this cut melts in the mouth.

LAMB GIGOT STEAK

Our gigot lamb steaks are on the bone and cut from whole Scottish lambs. Gigot is a traditional cut that is exceptionally tender owing to the bone marrow, that melts upon cooking and adds a wonderfully rich flavour.

Provisions: The delicate flavour of lamb needs very little enhancement, and is best served simply. You will find all the following in our range that compliments: Lemon Juice (28386) | Oregano (55397) | Dried Rosemary Needles (59507) | Mint Sauce (51650) | Redcurrant Jelly (85396) | White Cooking Wine (58349) | Cream & Cheese Gratin (46843) |

JF Lamb Gigot Steak

Tasting notes: Cut from whole Scottish Lambs, all the flavour of the bone marrow seeps throughout the cut as it cooks. Griddle in a hot pan quickly until its cooked to your liking.

RIB ROAST

Undoubtedly the most delicious cut for roast beef. Cut from the rib but left on the bone for the best flavour and high fat content, we like to slow and low roast and then reverse seared for perfection.

Provisions: Keep it simple with this beautiful cut, you need to do no more than season. You will find all the following in our range: Extra Virgin Olive Oil (48278) | Maldon Sea Salt Flakes (93468) | Whole Black Pepper Corns (98735) |

PP Rib Roast

Tasting notes: Our dry aged Scotch Rib Roast is aged for a minimum of 28 days so its full of flavour, for the very best eat we simply remove any gristle from under the cap.

FRENCH TRIMMED LAMB RACK

A Brown family favourite served with greens and a Potato Dauphinois. Our lamb racks are french trimmed, leaving beautifully clean bones that plate and present well.

PAVE STEAK

Pavé originates from the French word for brick or paving stone. Our Pavé Steaks are cut from chuck so are ideal where you need a quick cook option that boosts GP. We have served ours traditionally with a Bearnaise.

DUCK BREAST

Great cooked to perfection with a crispy skin and pink meat. Score the skin and place in the pan skin side down to allow the fat to render out. Team with fruity and tangy sauces.

FISH & SEAFOOD

Our frozen fish and seafood range includes some great quality options as viable alternatives to fresh. Whether it is a squid tube, a cold water cooked prawn for a classic prawn cocktail or even a Raw De-veined King Prawn to marinate, butterfly and grill you will find a wide range available.

Mackies Scooping

Mackies based in Westertown, Aberdeenshire generate renewable energy and grow crops to feed their cows, who provide the fresh milk and cream which we need to make Mackie's real dairy ice cream.

Orkney Scooping

For as long as anyone can remember, Crantit Dairy, owned by the Bichan family on the wild and beautiful land of Orkney, has taken daily delivery of fresh, creamy milk from the local cows. There are few places in the world where the grazing is as pure and pollution-free as it is on Orkney and it shows in the richness of the cream. Orcadians have always known about the quality of our local produce but a few years ago we decided our cream deserved wider appreciation, so they started using it to make Orkney Ice Cream.

CHEFS GLOSSARY

A

Al dente (adj.) – cooked so it's still got a bite, often referring to pasta.

A point (adj.) – cooking until the ideal degree of doneness, often referring to meat as medium rare.

Au gratin (adj.) – sprinkled with breadcrumbs and cheese, or both, and browned.

B

Bain Marie (n.) – a container holding hot water into which a pan is placed for slow cooking, otherwise known as a 'water bath' or double boiler'.

Baste (v.) – to pour juices or melted fat over meat or other food while cooking to keep moist.

Bisque (n.) – a thick creamy soup, with a base of strained broth.

Blanching (v.) – to plunge into boiling water, remove after a moment, and then plunge into iced water to halt the cooking process, usually referring to vegetable or fruit.

Braising (v.) – a combination-cooking method that first sears the food at high temperature, then finished in a covered pot at low temperature while sitting in some amount of liquid.

Butterfly (v.) – To split food in half but not the entire way through to expose more surface area to the heat source. To cook evenly and quickly.

Chiffonade (n.) – shredded or finely cut vegetables and herbs, usually used as a garnish for soup.

Concasse (n.) – to roughly chop raw or cooked food by peeling, seeding, and chopping to make it ready to be served or combined with other ingredients, usually referring to tomatoes.

Consommé (n.) – a type of clear soup made from richly flavoured stock that has been clarified, a process of using egg whites to remove fat.

Coulis (n.) – a thick sauce made with fruit or vegetable puree, used as a base or garnish.

D

Deglaze (v.) – to remove and dissolve the browned food residue, or "glaze", from a pan to flavour sauces, soups, and gravies.

Degrease (v.) – to remove the fat from the surface of a hot liquid such as a sauce, soup, or stew, also known as defatting or fat trimming.

Dress (v.) – to put oil, vinegar, salt, or other toppings on a salad or other food.

Dash (n.) – 1/8 of a teaspoon.

F

Fillet (n.) – a boneless piece of meat, poultry, or fish; the French version, spelled as "filet," is also used when referencing a cut of beef that is boneless, such as filet mignon.

Flambé (v.) – the process of adding alcohol such as brandy, cognac, or rum to a hot pan to create a burst of flames.

G

Ganache (n.) – a combination of cream or milk, mixed with melted chocolate, creates a soft consistency that does not set when cooled.

J

Jacquarding (v.) – the process of poking holes into the muscle of meat in order to tenderize it, also known as needling.

Jus lie (n.) – meat juice that has been lightly thickened with either arrowroot or corn starch.

Julienne – A way to cut foods into long thin strips, similar to 'shoestring fries'.

Larding (v.) – the process of inserting strips of fat into a piece of meat that doesn't have as much fat, to melt and keep the meat from drying out.

Liaison (v.) – a binding agent of cream and egg yolks used to thicken soups or sauces.

M

Macerate (v.) – the process of softening or breaking into pieces using liquid, often referring to fruit or vegetables, in order to absorb the flavour of the liquid.

Marinate (v.) – the process of soaking foods in seasoned and acidic liquid before cooking for hours or days, adding flavour to the food.

Mince (v.) – to finely divide food into uniform pieces smaller than diced or chopped foods, prepared using a chef's knife or food processor.

Mise en place (v.) – the preparation of ingredients, such as dicing onions or measuring spices, before starting cooking.

Mother (n.) – the base sauce used to make other variations of the original sauce; there are five variations: brown or espagnole, velouté, béchamel, tomato sauce, and emulsions.

N

Nappe (n.) – the ability of a liquid to coat the back of a spoon or the act of coating a food, such as a leg of lamb, with glaze.

Needling (v.) – injecting fat or flavours into an ingredient to enhance its flavour.

P

Parboiling (v.) – the process of adding foods to boiling waters, cooking until they are softened, then removing before they are fully cooked, usually to partially cook an item which will then be cooked another way.

Parcooking (v.) – the process of not fully cooking food, so that it can be finished or reheated later.

Paupiette (n.) – a thin, flattened piece of meat, rolled with a stuffing of vegetables or fruits, which is then cooked before served.

Puree (n.) – a fine mixture that is created by blending and or sieving foods in order to remove lumps and seeds and other elements.

S

Sautéing (v.) – to cook food quickly over relatively high heat, literally meaning "to jump" as the food does when placed in a hot pan.

Sear (v.) – a technique used in grilling, baking, or sautéing in which the surface of the food is cooked at high temperature until a crust forms.

Steep (v.) – to allow dry ingredients to soak in a liquid until the liquid takes on its flavour, often referring to coffee, tea, or spices.

Sweat (v.) – gently heating vegetables in a little oil, with frequent stirring and turning to ensure emitted liquid will evaporate; usually results in tender, translucent pieces.

BEHIND THE SCENES

In the autumn of 2023, we began the journey of creating a brochure that showcased our range. Our rationale was three fold. We set out to create a body of work that not only presented our wider Provisions range and Craft Butchery but also celebrated our passion for food as a family and marked over 60 years of trading. Like so many in the trade we service, the pandemic meant we had to re-structure, re-invent and refocus, which left little time for creation of brochures. So after a period of four years this is our very first publication of any scale and the first to show-off the full range. This is why we felt it was important to create something special that would be cherished, and that chefs could use and re-use. All content has been created and shot on site in our Edinburgh. We haven't used any expensive marketing agencies, the work is all our own and powered by the passion and love of what we do.

A special thank you to Chris Chorlton at Caterforce for his support, Fiona Bailey and Barry Mellor for their beautiful photography. So from our team to yours we thank you for all your continued loyal support through the years and we hope you enjoy our Provisions Guide.
